Foreword

In this annual we hope to preserve many laughable and cherished memories that otherwise would be forgotten.

THE Staff

Dedication

In appreciation of him who has served Roff in fullest capacity for the past four years, who has proved himself a leader in the affairs outside of the school as well as inside, who has won the respect and admiration of the whole student body and all who know him, we dedicate this fourth issue of THE TIGER to Superintendent Richard G. Swink. May all your future efforts be equally successful. Let "SERVICE TO OTHERS" continue to be your motto, for the one who will achieve the greatest success in life will be the one who best serves the greatest number of people.

We will ever be grateful to you for making it possible for us to have memories of our four years in high school preserved in annuals.

Of all the schools we know
 There's none we love so well
 As good old Roff High.
 Wearers of purple and gold
 We fight for the right so bold,
 We'll do the deed or die.
 With every heart and every voice
 With one accord we'll all rejoice
 We're from the Roff High.
 The school that does the thing in style,
 The school that makes
 This life worth while is Good Old Roff High School.

OF THE CLASS OF 1952

Prophecy

Booby Hatch, Oklahoma
June 10, 1972

Dear Tiger Staff:

After receiving your letter protesting the confining of former Roff Students in Booby Hatch Rehabilitation Center for Maladjusted Morons, we rushed down to free these innocent victims.

Here in verse is our eye witness account of the situation:

The institution of Booby Hatch is a cold dreary place
And to send people there really seemed to us a disgrace.
Friendless, forlorn - - what a life they must lead
And as to our purpose they must be freed.

Through the halls of the learned institute rang a long wolves howl
And a peek into a padded cell revealed J. L. and pal.
The dinner warden just delivered their meal and J. L. caught Pal eating his bones - - the heel!
The call of the wild became too strong for him
And to his urge to be a dog J. L. finally gave in.

The next cell offers to our view
A graceful skater dressed in blue.
It's poor Max Hudson gone off his nut cause his skating got in an awful rut.

In a cell further down sits feeble minded Jo,
A hummin' and a singin' and a playing her banjo,
She sits there a singin', throughout the night and day,
She'll never again be the same,
After losing sly ol' Kay.

A fast game of marbles we find taking place
Myrle and Jewell really set a torrid pace.
They've been playing for more than a year
And for skill they can't be beat we hear.

A gibbering, muttering idiot comes skipping down the hall,
It's little Betty Johnson and a big bouncing ball.
She's been here since '53; She's the Booby Hatch pride and joy
Except next time Mr. Johnson, they plead PLEASE send us a boy.

Why isn't that Cleo dressed in blood-stained lace?
She's here for grinding up ex-husband Paul - - Heavens what a disgrace!
'Twas the age old problem of who gets the monthly check
And even though she won the brawl she's still a nervous wreck.

Prophecy Cont.

They fly through the air with the greatest of ease
But it would be so much better if they had a trapeze.
It's Frances and Frances - - their careers gone astray,
They were going to be teachers but arrived here last May.
Kiddies were too much for them, their methods against the law,
Because they came to school each morning equipped with hammer, ax, and saw.

Bobbie Melton used to collect horses
This obsession grew and grew.
This - - say the doctors - - might offer a clue.
For in Booby Hatch today there streaks a flash through the door - -
It's Bobbie, of course, alias Man-of-War.

Screams Margaret Clampitt, "Let me out."
And to you Geometry and Shakespeare will spout.
At one time a noted brain
She now thinks herself a choo choo train.

In a padded cell we found him
Eyes alive with flame.
To end the career of this madman surely was a shame.
Blue-beard Tingle he calls himself (this came from his Jr. play)
His shrieks and mutterings we could hear throughout the night or day.

In a distant cell quite morose
Sits Sleepy Etchieson idly counting her toes.
Her thoughts wander back over many years
To the time she burned off Jim Davis's ears.
When atomic airplanes were all the craze
You'd find Sleepy quite content to set something ablaze
Till the day she was finally captured (Oh sad it was for her)
She was just about to ignite her pet dog's fur.

Beanie Belt is another, his friend Warnee he tried to smother
So he occupies a cell in this great home.
And if the doctors have their way he may never more roam.

From the corner of the recreation room arise subtle whispers.
It's Imogene and Anna entertaining Sunday visitors.
Take our advice says Anna, Marriage certainly doesn't rate.
The result of mending too many socks has left us in this state.

From another cell comes noise - - a loud slam! bang! crunch!
Why it's Donna Lawson fixing Norman's lunch.
Course Norman's gone to Heaven due to Donna's well-planned meals
But we have to humor her - - or so the Doctor feels.

We came to Booby Hatch for reform
To give these poor souls peace
And we'll continue our worthy cause
When we get our release.

Sincerely,
Dr. Ton, B.R. --Dr. Son, B. R.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of '52 being of reasonable sound mind and body, sound body anyway, do hereby declare this our last will and testament:

J. L. Parkins leaves his shaggy dog personality and his Valentino love technique to Joe Fred Barker who is the most deserving of these honors.

Frances Davis leaves her personal booklet entitled "Ten Ways to Polish the Apple" to Norma Walls in hopes it will prove helpful.

Imogene Twyman leaves her sweet thoughtful gracious attitude and ability to hold her man to Robbie Simpson.

Donna Lawson leaves her inspirational gait to Hollis Brown in the hopes that Hollis will inspire as many as Donna has.

Myrle Glasgow leaves her little black book containing Valley View Intern addresses to Barbara Anderson.

Cleo Johnson leaves Mrs. Harrod's good opinion of her to Barbara Bland 'cause Barbara sure can use it.

Max Hudson leaves his unusual ability at party games to Clyde Nichols in hopes Clyde can squash an egg even flatter than he.

Jo Johnson bequeaths her come-hither look to Barbara Young in hopes Barbara will use it as effectively as she has.

Sleepy Etchieson gives her recipe for a calm unruffled romance to Ed Etchieson and the girl of his choice, preferably Earlene Scott because they would make such a well-matched pair.

Frances Morrison wants Mrs. Harrod to have her ability to see the funny side of things.

Margaret Clampitt says she doesn't have anything she can part with. She needs all she's got and more too, so any contribution would be appreciated.

Bobbie Melton leaves her baby talk and actions to Douglas Reed since they would set off his baby face and black ringlets.

Betty Johnson has so many traits she'd be better off without, and not wanting to play any favoritism she's having a rummage sale after graduation. Don't miss it!

Leogene Belt wants Peyton York to have his book on wrestling and Judo holds.

Charles Tingle is bequeathing his curly hair and cowboy hat and boots to Max Roberts so Max can be a Grade "A" Cowboy.

Anna Krannig leaves Pat Pipes her sure-fire, never-fail formula for husband trapping.

Bennie Graham gives her temperamental personality to Don Cartwright because Don is such a quiet, even-tempered person.

And to the Juniors and underclassmen we leave lingeringly several cluttered lockers, carved desks and battered typewriters fully equipped with small weapons, candy wrappers and used gum. May they use them to the advantage that we have and get as many memories from them. We leave you our ability to work together with the hopes that you will use it with as much consecrated zeal as we have to turn all the teachers grey.

WHY WE BOUGHT THESE ADS

Said the puddle duck to the little white hen,
"I haven't sold an egg since I don't know when,
Yet I feel quite sure that the eggs I lay
Are as good as a hen's eggs any old day."

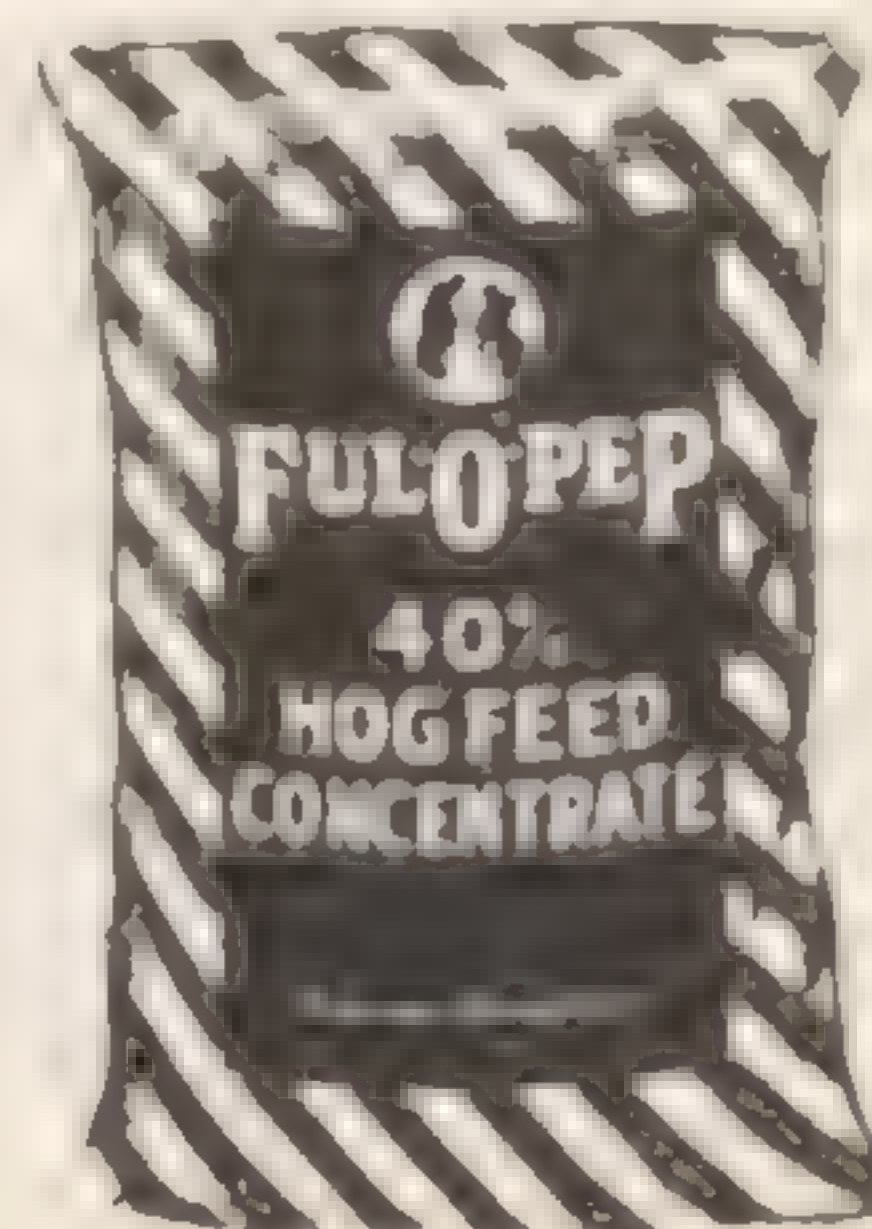

Said the little white hen to the puddle duck,
"You think perhaps you are out of luck;
Your eggs are as good, I'll freely admit,
And larger, too, by quite a bit."

But my dear Mrs. Duck, I'll give you a tip,
The whole fault lies with your salesmanship;
You produce your egg and without a quack,
To your swimming pool you waddle back.

I tell the world to let it know,
So I cackle around for an hour or so.
There's a good demand for the eggs I lay,
FOR I MAKE MY ADVERTISING PAY."
